RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On August 22, 2017, petitioners filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioners allege that E.B. suffered “injuries, including intussusception, resulting from the adverse effects of a rotavirus vaccination received on June 2, 2017.” Petition at 1. Petitioners maintain that the onset or manifestation of E.B.’s intussusception occurred within the time period set forth listed on the Vaccine Injury Table and no cause for her intussusception was identified. Id. at ¶ 10; see 42 C.F.R. § 100.3(a)(XI) (2017). Petitioners further allege that E.B. received her vaccination in the United States, that her intussusception resulted in inpatient hospitalization and surgical intervention, and that neither petitioners nor any other party has filed a civil action or received compensation for E.B.'s injuries. Petition at ¶¶ 1, 3, 11-13. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

On January 12, 2018, respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that petitioners are entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent's Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, respondent "has reviewed the facts of this case and concluded that petitioners' claim meets the Table criteria for intussusception occurring within one to twenty-one days after a rotavirus vaccination." Id. at 3. Respondent further agrees that all statutory and jurisdiction issues required before compensation can be awarded have been satisfied. Id.

In view of respondent's position and the evidence of record, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
